

local description

Copper Hill Estates is located north of Tucson in the northwestern foothills of the Catalina Mountains. Just 30 effortless and scenic minutes out of the city, Copper Hill Estates is easily found off of Highway 77 and Biosphere Road. With Tucson so close you are able to enjoy the vibrant urban area yet appreciate the soothing countryside. The city of Tucson welcomes 350 days of sunshine each year, more than any other city in the United States. This location resonates postcard image geography of mountain ranges, pristine desert vistas and a city skyline of breathtaking beauty. Copper Hill Estates is an authentic Southwestern location.

